

A man's life is turned upside down when his dead brother returns. Ten years after the loss of their younger brother, Michael (Daniel Radcliffe) and David (James McAvoy) are at a crossroads: to carry on living with guilt and regret or to allow themselves to move on. The return throws them into a vicious circle of pain and violence that seems inescapable until David seizes it as an opportunity to make something good happen, but old habits die hard. This is the story of fighting for redemption no matter how hopeless things may seem, as long as there is love for those who deserve better than what they have gotten so far.
